

ROTOCHAT OF CHATSWORTH ROTARY CLUB

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

A surprise to all of us, including Polk!

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We had as our guest speaker Mr. Don Sands who told us all about Social Security. Mr. Sands told us all the details about this law and taxes. He gave us all something to look forward to: age 72. That's when you can draw your social security payments and still work! A very enlightening program.

President Cliff announced that Nick Petruso is now a member of the Canoga Park Rotary Club. We all hate to see Nick leave the Chatsworth Club -- but as Cliff said, it is our loss and Canoga's gain.

Dean won the five dollars as first prize in our weekly raffle. The second prize, donated by Tom Craig, was won by our program chairman Polk Jennings who gave it to our guest speaker, Mr. Don Sands. (I suppose it was some old spirits that Tom found in the back corner during the remodeling of his Liquor Store.)

Bruce Pegg brought as his guest his step-father, Mr. Bud Zander, from Kalamazoo, Michigan.

DARK NEXT WEEK

Our club will be DARK on May 5 in order that everyone will be present at the gala Ten Year Charter Celebration of our Rotary Club at the Chatsworth Chamber building on May 8th.

So as not to miss any of our "Happy Birthday Boys" we will list them now. Gay Minardi celebrates on May 1; George Lorbeer on May 4, Polk Jennings on May 5, and Len Chenard on May 8. What will we do, Joe -- sing four individual operettas or combine them into one? Anyway, Happy Birthday to each of you!

BOARD MEETING

There was a board of Directors meeting held at President Cliff's house on April 20.

The Board voted to donate $200 to the Chatsworth Little League, which most of you will remember we originally sponsored when it was first formed. Former Rotarian John Konigsfield was very active in this organization and did a lot of hard work for the Little League while he lived here in Chatsworth. The Board also agreed to sponsor the Girl Scout Troup 883 and gave them a $25 donation. The Board also bought 25 copies of "What Rotary Means to Me" and any member who did not get one at the Palm Springs Conference may have a copy for only a dollar. Our member, Mert Cooke, has an outstanding letter printed in this book.

Besides members of the Board of Directors being present at the meeting, there were Mert Cooke, Roger Kirkpatrick, Harry Briggs, and your editor. It's good to see members who have an interest in the workings of the Club!

SCUTTLEBUT

Bob Kinsman is branching out from dentistry into road repair work. Curly is also getting some use out of Clif's tractor. Who's next? Anyone interested in storing those two now-famous black jack tables may pick them up at 10900 Farralone! Phyllis and Gerge Lorbeer had a busy weekend hosting a slumber party for their daughter, Becky (Joe Trafficanda -- we understand the Lorbeer's are raising chickens now!) Did you see Roy's commercial for Chevrolet? It sure looked like a subtle hint for Apple Valley when you noticed the load of apples in back of the station wagon. It was good to see Wes at our meeting -- he has made-up each week up North and is certainly doing his best to get that 100% attendance for us. Harold -- the Fat Man's Club doesn't mean you're supposed to gain -- lay off those candy bars! We'll bet Len Chenard is the only person in Chatsworth who is driving around in a steamboat. Haven't you heard it? But at least it drives -- poor Mike Ragusin had his Lincoln Continental conk out on him and had to drive a good car -- Charlie's Falcon! We understand that the Viole's have a fantastic view of the relocated Chatsworth Methodist Church from their hillside home. Bob and Eve Boggis are sailing the ocean blue -- hope they're not seasick! Hi, Al Brain, how are you getting along? Hope you're able to be with us on May 8.
