THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our Program Chairman Polk Jennings has as our speaker today Mr. Armistead of Anheiser-Busch Corporation. Mr. Armistead will tell us about the new Busch Gardens now under construction in the San Fernando Valley, and will illustrate his talk with slides.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

We had as our speaker, instead of Mr. Ed Leonard who was unable to attend, the President of the Chatsworth Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Ken Levy. Mr. Levy told us briefly about the Junior Chamber and that the age limit to hold office was twenty-one to thirty six. However, anyone can be a member of the Junior Chamber at any age. Mr. Levy mentioned the fact that even though they carry the name of Chamber of Commerce, they are in no way connected with the Chamber of Commerce (He gave his apologies to Bruce Pegg!) Mr. Levy's talk was mainly about the proposed Booster Club for the Chatsworth High School. The goal is to have at least 2000 members by the first of September and the main idea is to get as many members as possible at only five dollars per person who will be in favor of helping the Chatsworth High School in the many programs that come up. There will be elected officials in the Booster Club and the funds will be used for whatever purpose the general membership votes for. The High School is in need of many facilities such as a swimming pool, lights for the football field, scoreboard, and many more things. Sounds like the Junior Chamber has a wonderful idea and we all should give them our support.

The five dollars in the raffle was won by our Egg Man, Mr. Joe Trafficanda. The second prize, donated by our Delicatessen Retail man, Mr. Ray Hultman, was won by one of our guests, Mr. Ray Finorani, a member of the Chatsworth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

President Clif told the Club about the 150 Scouts who spent the weekend on a camp-out at Chatsworth Park. Our Club furnished and served the hot dogs, potato salad, soda pop, and cookies. The Scouts were very busy cleaning the rocks that have been defaced surrounding the park. Helping to serve the food were Rotarians Len Chenard, Mike Hayes, and President Clif. Another worthwhile community service program.

SCUTTLEBUT

We understand that Len Chenard has been to a fire sale. Ray Skevington left a poor customer stranded on the Santa Susana pass. (He was already fined by Curley.) Tom Craig is having his troubles with the electrical inspector. Cele Ragusin is having her problems, too--one-half hour before she was expecting 16 women at her home, Mike had to call Big Red to pump the you-know-what! Next morning she was ready to start shopping when she found the driveway blocked by Mike's car--he had gone golfing with George Lorbeer and forgot to leave Cele the keys! Roger Kirkpatrick was all ready to take Pat to the ball game when we think he got wind that the bank employees were having a Birthday Party for him. Mert Cooke is really becoming a golf pro. Hank Crowley is busier than ever with Mothers Day and then Memorial Day. How do you promote Fathers Day, Hank? E. Montel Miner won first prize at the West Van Nuys Rotary meeting. George Lorbeer--Clif says it's the last call for pictures of the Tenth Anniversary Party-- order them through Len instead of the Green Sheet! Clif and Susie saw Kolfax loose a thriller, 2 to 1. Are they our first baseball enthusiasts? Track fans are the whole Kinsman family. After the Clay-Liston bout, I think we're completely out of fight fans! By the way, Bob, are you and Larry branching out into the concrete business? Gay, Pat, George, and Charlie had a fantastic meal at Travaglini's new restaurant and then a pleasant visit with Tony. The Encino Rotary Club meets at Travaglini's on Thursday evenings at 7:30--you'll enjoy the food and fellowship if you need a make-up. Wonder where Bob and Eve are now. Betty and Wes were down over the weekend for the Great Western Livestock Show--How many "firsts", Wes? Most of us brag about our new furniture, but Reverend Jim is proud of his new pews. We should drop by some Sunday morning and see Jim and his new pews! Congratulations, Harry Pierpont, for the excellent job you're doing on the House Committee--everyone is enjoying the food--Ray Hultman even took seconds on the roast beef!
